EVANGELIST STEPHANIE JONES

GWV EDUCATION FOUNDATION DIRECTOR &
CHARLES HARRISON MASON JURISDICTIONAL INSTITUTE (CHMJI) DEAN

Stephanie Jones was born in Philadelphia, PA and raised in Keyser, WV by her maternal grandmother. Under her love and guidance, she was introduced to Jesus Christ who she accepted as her personal Lord and Savior at 12 years old. Raised and reared by members of the church to live a life of holiness, to have a heart of service, and strive for excellence, she was the first person in her family to go to college. She continued her academic venture to receive her Bachelor and Master degrees in education.

She worked for 19 years for the Mineral County Board of Education in Keyser, WV as an instructional assistant with the Mineral County Head Start Program. After obtaining her degree she taught for 19 years in Allegany County, Maryland. Stephanie currently functions as the director of the Greater West Virginia Jurisdiction (GWVJ) Education Foundation and as the dean for the C. H. Mason Jurisdictional Institute. Previously, she served as the district missionary of the Northern District of the GWVJ Church of God in Christ for over 35 years. Her ministerial roles began as a child under the leadership of Elder A. Minor and have grown into a passion for teaching the youth and mentoring young ministry leaders. A scripture she has referred to and shared with others often is Proverbs 3:5, 6 "Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

She has organized church administrative affairs and taught Sunday School. She is a prayer warrior. In addition she has some technology skills, is an avid reader, and enjoys doing research on various topics. Stephanie Jones has been married for over 40 years to Deacon Curtis Jones, Jr., with four lovely daughters, two grandsons, and granddaughter. She continues to share the love of God with others through her professional career, with her family, and in her community.
